Professional Photography Policies and Rules

Carolyn's Pumpkin Patch welcomes photography on the farm. However, as a private business and personal property, all photographers and their clients must understand and adhere to the following polices and rules. These policies and rules have been established to allow an enjoyable experience for all our guests.

- Photography clients must pay normal daily admission.
- Photography session fee is $50 for a two-hour block. 1 Photographer's admission is included in the $50.
- Photographers must request permission before setting any client dates or arriving at the farm. Please be sure to plan ahead as it is hard for us to accommodate last minute requests.
- Appropriate clothing must always be worn.
- NO studio equipment.
- NO photos in retail area
- No climbing on any structures. Please do not move, alter, or draw on any structures or property.
- Areas are not reserved, and photographers cannot take priority over other visitor activities. Visitors are free to use almost any areas at any time during business hours.
- Vehicles must be parked in the parking lot.
- All trash created by you must be thrown away in trash bins.
- NO changing areas are provided.
- All photographers and clients must check-in and check-out at the admissions building.
- Carolyn's Country Cousins assumes no responsibility for loss, theft, or damage to equipment.
- All policies are strictly enforced, and we reserve the right to remove anyone from the property as deemed necessary.

Permission request process:

1. Print, complete and sign this form.
2. Email a copy to info@carolynspumpkinpatch.com
3. We will review the request and reply via email as soon as possible.
   (Do not call the farm for permission. Only email requests will be considered.)

I, the undersigned, of legal age, on behalf of myself and the group, organization, or clients I represent, hereby indemnify and hold Carolyn's Pumpkin Patch harmless for any personal injury, lost or stolen articles or damaged property by anyone using the farm facilities or on the farm premises.
